

'AMERICANS' AFTER COLONEL E. A. WALL

Party Leaders Are Desperate in Their Desire to Nominate Him For Mayor.

MATERIAL IS VERY SCARCE.

Necessity for Men Whose Reputations Are Not Tainted Among Eliminates the Field.

In looking about for a way out of the dilemma in which the Sheets-Kearns party finds itself, the Kearns end of the party is hunting for more men of the W. Mont Perry type, who may be put forth as exhibit A—good citizens. Every "gentle" whose reputation does not reek with the typical Kearnsite odor is being approached, and impromptu to step forward and pick up the party's banner.

The latest man on whom an attempt is being made to fasten the party brand is Col. E. A. Wall. Colonel Wall has made a reputation for square dealing and steadfast honesty as well as efficiency in public places. Because he has this unique asset in his favor, the "American" party leaders are fairly refusing to sleep in their anxiety to fasten a party nomination on him for mayor.

BIG DINNER PLANNED.

A few days ago a prominent citizen of Salt Lake was approached with a request that he come to a big dinner to be tendered to Col. Wall. He was further asked to say a lot of nice things to the colonel.

JUST "TO JOLLY HIM ALONG."

The man who was in charge of the dinner party was a prominent real estate man. His plan was to have his prospective dinner speaker say nice things about the colonel, and spread it on thick, and when enough men had said good things loud enough to really touch the colonel's heart, then someone would suddenly discover how available a Moses he was to lead the poor city of Salt Lake out of her troubles, up to the high plane of financial stability and administration. At this everyone was to rise and shout and keep it up till the mayoralty nomination was so firmly fastened to Col. Wall that he could not possibly refuse.

NOT YET ANNOUNCED.

Public announcement of the dinner is not yet made. When the prospective candidate is fully acquainted with the prospective way of seeing that he gets the nomination, he may have his own opinion about attending. Now that he can no longer use his name even among the stalwarts of his own party, Hon. Thomas Kearns still has money to best along movement that gives him a little satisfaction every time a little harm is done to the state where he is to be selling out his possessions with a view of moving away.

DEATH AT LOGAN.

Golden Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cardon—Goes to Reform School.

(Special to the "News.") Logan, July 31.—Jens Nielson of the Seventh ward, father of Elias Nielson of the Union knitting mills, died yesterday of heart trouble. Mr. Nielson was recently working in the mill and started to work, but was taken suddenly ill and died before noon. The funeral has been arranged for Friday at 2 o'clock in the Seventh ward meetinghouse.

Jens Nielson was born in Denmark, Dec. 23, 1835. Embraced the gospel in 1860. Came to Utah in 1882. After remaining in Escalante county one year he came to Logan, where he has since resided. He was a very quiet, unassuming man but industrious, honest and upright in all his dealings. He leaves a wife and four children, two sons and two daughters, all grown.

There was a large gathering of the Cardon family on Tuesday at the residence of Mrs. Joel Ricks of this city, the occasion being the fifth anniversary of the wedding of Paul and Susannah Cardon of Benson, as well as the lady's seventy-fourth birthday. A great many beautiful presents were given the young wedded pair and a very delightful time was had.

Jacob Postel, a young man of Providence, was committed to the reform school by Judge Pederson, on Tuesday, and was taken to Ordway by Sheriff Smith this morning. The young man took a horse belonging to Mr. Klempfer of Providence and rode it nearly to death. He was brought before Judge Pederson, who imposed a fine of $10 on the boy, who went to jail in default of the payment. On Sunday the young man tried to commit suicide. Judge Pederson finally decided to send him to the reform school.

The contract has finally been let to J. W. Barrett for a six-room addition to the Woodruff school, his bid being $12,652. Work on the same will be vigorously pushed. This will leave about $20,000 of the fund raised by the special tax for the proposed building in the fifth ward.

Mrs. A. E. Cates left this morning for her home in Long Beach, Cal., after an extended visit with relatives in Logan. Her mother, Mrs. Annie L. Hvie, accompanied her.

Herman Johnson was made happy on Tuesday by the arrival at his home of a 14-pound boy. This is the first boy in the family.

MISS WHITE MAY BE SAVED

Letters Received from Blanche Musser Indicate There Are Still Hopes.

Although no definite news has been received of the safety of Miss Wynona White, the young lady companion of Miss Blanche Musser on the ill-fated trip of the steamer Columbia, Miss Musser still entertains hopes that she has been rescued from the wreck. Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Musser of this city are in receipt of a communication under date of July 29, from their daughter Blanche, who is now in San Francisco, a few excerpts from which follow:

"We haven't heard definitely about Wynona yet although today we learned that all in her berth were awakened and had life preservers on. Arthur (P. Musser) phoned a few minutes ago to find out if there were two Miss Whites on the boat. Elder Thompson has gone to learn as much as he can about the two missing lifeboats. So, dear ones, there is still great hope and I thank God for His love and wonderful blessings.

"The good people here won't let me stay outside the house without an escort. Last night our elders held a meeting among the poor refugees from the earthquake and took me along. My, it is pitiful to hear their stories. Utah is plenty good enough for me—to have to live in this city would be about the worst punishment one could inflict on me."

"I hope Wynona is saved and truly believe she is. I started down to her berth, but a man made me return. I wasn't at all frightened or nervous, and kept right cool. That was a choice blessing from God, and I thank Him for it. I held on to a railing and went down as far as the ship would take me, and when I came up I caught hold of a hood and then paddled over to a raft and asked a man if he would help me on it. He tried to, but I was too heavy, so I asked another one to help him, he did and I got on all right. After three hours, a life boat picked me and another woman up. The sight of land was a glorious realization. The men on the boat showed us as much gentleness as I could expect from my own brothers, and during the three or four days of close friendship, I learned to love them dearly. Big-hearted seamen went to see us women suffer, and they were as gentle as women to us. I shall never forget them and want to pay them back by helping some one else who may be in need. There are lots of good people in the world, and I thank my Heavenly Father that I have been permitted to meet so many.

"Pray always for Wynona and her grief-stricken people. Today I feel sure we will soon hear of her and that she is safe."

SUIT ON BOND.

Salt Lake County Seeks to Recover $2,500 on Bridge Contract.

Suit has been filed in the district court by Salt Lake county against Fred G. Palmer and the American Surety company of New York to recover $2,500 on Palmer's bond in connection with the construction of a bridge over the Jordan river at Fourteenth South street. Palmer was awarded the contract by the county commissioners and partly constructed the bridge. He threw up the contract and the county was compelled to complete the bridge at an expense of $2,500. The action is accordingly brought against Palmer and the bond company to recover the amount expended.

CLERK'S FEES INCREASE.

County Clerk Eldredge reports the fees of his office for the month of July to be $1,910.20. This is an increase over the fees of the same month last year of $290.20.

MUCH GRAIN DESTROYED.

Aberdeen, S. D., Aug. 1.—One hundred and sixty square miles of growing grain in southern Brown and northern Spink counties were practically destroyed Tuesday night by the worst hailstorm in this vicinity in years. The storm was preceded by and accompanied by a strong wind and in half an hour the loss was complete. The region damaged is in the heart of the richest country in this section of South Dakota.

HAYWOOD FAILS TO ARRIVE HERE

No Word from Acquitted Defendant Hence His Movements Are Not Known.

SENATOR BORAH IS IN TOWN.

Man Who Headed Prosecution Discusses Trial and Declares It Was Fair and Square.

United States Senator William E. Borah, special prosecutor in the Haywood trial in Salt Lake today. William Haywood, the acquitted defendant in one of the most famous cases ever held in the west, did not arrive on Oregon Short Line No. 8 as expected this morning. Associated Press dispatches from Boise announced that he would leave Boise last night and spend a few hours in Salt Lake before proceeding to Denver. He was to be accompanied by his mother, Mrs. H. M. Carruthers and Charles H. Moyer, president of the federation, released on $25,000 bail. James Kilien of this city, brother-in-law of the acquitted man, was at the depot to meet Haywood and was greatly disappointed at not seeing him. It was thought he might have been held over in Ogden by friends, but inquiry disproved this. It is now thought he may reach this city this afternoon. No special program has been arranged, as it is not known when he will arrive here.

SENATOR BORAH TALKS.

Senator Borah, the man who headed the talent arrayed against Haywood, arrived last evening. He is on his way to Cripple Creek to gather evidence pertaining to the Pettibone hearing set for Oct. 1. Senator Borah asserts positively that Pettibone will be brought to trial and announces that if this defendant is not convicted Moyer will never be brought to trial as the prosecution believes it has a stronger case against Pettibone than it has against any of the federation officials under suspicion of having participated in the murder of Gov. Steiensenberg of Idaho. He says Harry Orchard is to be punished and he can see no reason why the self-confessed many-time murderer should not receive the limit penalty for his various, numerous and hideous crimes.

WAS FAIR TRIAL.

Senator Borah says the trial was an exceptionally fair and square one. Judge Wood's rulings being impartial and his charge to the jury unbiased. The verdict of the jury was a surprise to him, however, as he was confident a hung jury would result. He believes his members brought in a verdict according to their own honest ideas after sitting through the trial.

AMUSEMENTS.

Theater—The only place of amusement in the city open tonight is the Salt Lake theater, where Cyril Scott opens an engagement in "The Prince Chap." The engagement will run three nights with a Saturday matinee.

AT THE RESORTS

Twenty-second ward will spend the day at Wandamere tomorrow (Aug. 2). A program of sports has been arranged. Prizes will be given and a general good time is expected.

"Americans" at Lagoon—This is so-called "American" day at Lagoon, and many persons are taking advantage of complimentary tickets to get a ride for themselves and members of their family to the Davis county resort. The plans of the party leaders seem to be that a large crowd must be secured in some way, even if people have to be induced to ride free. Prizes to the amount of several hundred dollars are to be given to persons holding lucky coupons, and the usual program is scheduled for the day.

WARD ENTERTAINMENTS

Eleventh Ward—The Eleventh ward Sunday school will have its annual picnic at Wandamere tomorrow. An interesting program of sports and amusements has been provided, and an enjoyable time is anticipated. All friends of the school are invited to attend.

Byron Child—Tonight in the Eleventh ward assembly hall, Elder Byron Child, who is about to depart for a mission to Germany will be tendered a missionary farewell. A splendid program is prepared for the occasion, and all who attend will have an enjoyable time. The public is invited.

MUD THE SOURCE OF LONG LIFE.

The remarkable longevity of the inhabitants of Marcham-le-Fen, a village near Boston, was recently noticed in the Daily Mail. A communication from Boston states that long life is the peculiar fortune of residents of this part of the country, and it is locally attributed to the health-giving properties of sea-deposited mud. At Freston shore, a seaside resort about five miles from Boston, the outgoing tide leaves behind a great expanse of mud, from which vivifying gases are said to arise. Wonderful restorations to health are reported in the case of patients from the Midlands who have been sent to this spot. Hitherto Freston has been quiet and little known, but now, it is stated, a Coventry firm of gunmakers has obtained a right to erect a platform for mounting heavy guns, with a range crossing the marsh, and it is also proposed to make a deep sea dock for the export of coal, both of which projects will curtail the general enjoyment of the precious mud.—London Daily Mail.

A FATAL BOAST.

Andre Autard, who makes John D. Rockefeller's wigs, is a plump and elegant Frenchman, who has a shop in the best quarter of Paris. He was talking of the heavy duty which Mr. Rockefeller had to pay on his last wig.

"It was sharp practice," said M. Autard in the fluent English that he learned in London. "It was like the way I was treated in my apprenticeship."

"When I was learning barbering I applied for a post in London. The patron engaged me at a certain wage, and at the end of our talk he said: 'You speak both French and English.' 'Yes, sir,' I responded quickly; 'and Dutch also.' 'We have no dealings with Dutchmen here,' said he. 'Therefore, I will take one-third off that salary.'"

FREIGHT BUREAU DOWN TO WORK

Local Interests Among Petitioners for Modification of Rates.

The Transmissouri Freight association began business sessions this morning, in parlor A at the Knutsford hotel, with Chairman Polet presiding. There were 17 representatives of roads interested, outside of the local freight men present, and the various classes of petitioners are arranged on a docket, which is called up by the chair in rotation.

Manager Lewis of the "News" book store, George Lambert of the Lambert Paper company, and C. K. Kern, appeared for the local paper jockeys in reference to modification of rates and other changes along their special lines. Orson Hewitt appeared to ask for changes of rates on green coffees; and the requests of these two classes of petitioners are being considered. The local beer interests will ask for changes tomorrow morning, and other lines of trade will be represented with their special requests. The discussions involve modifications, changes, and mixtures in rates, classifications, etc., which cover a wide and intricate field.

The Motor Face.

A few days ago a well known personage was motoring in Derbyshire when a policeman stopped him. "You'll have to take off that mask," said the officer, "it's frightening every one who sees it."

"But I'm not wearing one," explained the unfortunate motorist.—London Times.
